- Pieces selected will be put for sale in the fundraiser “FORMable Feast” on Friday, February 17, 2012.
- Make sure your membership is current and submit this fillable pdf as an attachment to an email with your images no later than January 3, 2012 to Christine Feldmann: cfeldmann@hawaiiantel.net .
- Photos don’t have to be professionally taken but should be clear digital images against a PLAIN background, preferably cropped to size. We won’t accept work without the size, medium, price and name of artist accompanying each image.
- Payment to the artist will be made within four weeks after we receive payment from the purchaser.
- The artist may elect to retain 0-50% of the retail value of each item sold.
- All works are subject to a 4.712% Hawaii State GE tax unless the work will be shipped out of the state. Hawaii Craftsmen will collect the tax and split it with the artist who can pay it on his/her portion of the sale. The artist must have a GE tax license to do this.
- It is understood and agreed that all work submitted is at the owner’s risk. Utmost care will be taken in the handling and display of artwork, but Hawaii Craftsmen (HC) will not assume responsibility for loss or damage no matter how sustained.
- Neighbor Islands shipping: the artist will be responsible for shipping to Oahu (even 100% donated work). HC will pay shipping back for unsold work. Unsold donated work will remain the property of HC until it can be sold in another venue that benefits HC.
- Drop-off information will be provided later. Artists will be responsible for picking up their work if it is not sold on Saturday, Feb. 18 at the KCC Gallery. You will receive a phone call, Friday evening before 10 p.m. if your work is not sold.
