

RAKU

Ho'olaule'a

Raku Ho'olaule'a is an annual community Raku ceramics workshop, firing and camp out in a beautiful beach side setting, this year at Camp Mokule'ia.

The Tradition: The ideograph "raku" freely translated means enjoyment, contentment, pleasure and happiness. The original pieces of raku were tea bowls. Japanese raku potters worked exclusively to produce vessels for the tea ceremony, creating objects "according to the laws of nature," hence raku evolved as it did because of the tea masters preferences for natural things.

The Tea Ceremony: Each year Raku Ho'olaule'a is inaugurated with a traditional Japanese tea ceremony presented by the Urasenke Foundation in the University of Hawaii at Manoa, East-West Center Garden, Tea House. This demonstration will take place, Saturday, April 28, 10a.m. - 12 noon.

With a lineage going back 400 years, The Urasenke Foundation, was founded in Kyoto, Japan in 1949. Presently it is a worldwide organization dedicated to "Chado, The Way of Tea" and the four Zen principles of Wa, Kei, Sei, and Jaku - Harmony, Respect, Purity and Tranquility. The foundation provides jurors and guidance in the selection of objects for exhibition in the traditional category as well as participatory tea ceremony demonstrations at our Workshop and exhibition openings.

The Tea Bowl Workshop: Following the tea ceremony (10 a.m. - 12 noon), master potter Ed Higa leads a free hands on workshop where participants shape and carve their own tea bowl in the University of Hawaii at Manoa, Art Department Ceramics lab. Saturday, April 28, 12 noon - 1p.m. and 2 - 5 p.m.

The Guest Artist: This year Hawaii Craftsmen has invited Steven Forbes-de Soules to serve as our guest artist/contemporary juror. Steven has studied and worked with clay for nearly 40 years. He has said of his work, "I am using ceramic art as a means to achieve a balance between conscious control and the more subtle, unconscious or universal forces that permeate our reality...The raku firing is the ultimate test of achieving this balance..."

In addition to jurying artwork submitted for exhibition in the contemporary raku category Steven will conduct a wet clay demonstration, Tuesday, May 22, 6 -9 p.m. and slide lecture, Wednesday, May 23, 7p.m. at the University of Hawaii at Manoa, Art Department and provide interactive demonstrations at the beachside firing.

The Main Event: Three days of communing, glazing and firing by the beach at Camp Mokule'ia. Friday, May 25, 12 noon - Monday, May 28, 12 noon.

The Exhibition: On display at The Arts at Marks Garage, Tuesday, June 19 - Saturday, July 14, 11 a.m. - 6 p.m. Opening Reception Thursday July 21st 5:30-8:p.m. Silent Auction through out the length of the show.

The Community Kiln: The public gets to have a turn. For $5 individuals may purchase, glaze and watch while Hawaii Craftsmen volunteers fire the member created and donated tea bowls. This year the community kiln will be downtown again, but in a new location: on Hotel Street, between Smith and Maunakea on First Friday, July 6, from 6 - 10 p.m. There will be more room and maybe wheel throwing and hand building demonstrations.

Changes to this Event.....

2012 Rules and Regulations

Registration and Group Participation

Raku Ho'olaule'a is open to the public however, firing participants and all overnight campers and guests must register as individuals or as part of a group. If you wish to form a group (eight or more), you will need a group leader representative and provide your own equipment and supplies. If you would like to join an already formed group contact HC at 808-521-3282 or info@hawaiicraftsmen.org. Only registered firing participants may fire and enter the juried competition. There is a $20 per person for families and friends who are just camping. Camp Mokule'ia mandates a $. per person fee per day for visitors. Everyone camping and visiting MUST register!

Assigned Camping Areas

Camping space will be available Friday through Monday morning, May 25 -28. Set up is on Friday, May 25, after 12 Noon. Clean up will be on Monday May 28th. MOVE OUT BY 12 Noon Monday. Each group will be assigned a camping area that is adjacent to their assigned firing area. Size and placement of areas is based on size of group. Every effort will be made to accommodate group requests. Please keep your group within your assigned area.

Parking

Overnight parking will be available in designated parking areas only. Obtain car registration form from your group leader and display in window of each vehicle. Parking will be double and triple deep. Outside overflow parking will be provided.

Camping Rules

Camp Mokule'ia has its own rules some are noted as follows. Read attached Camp Rules.

- Take all trash and bulky trash items to the dumpster throughout the weekend.
- Please put your recyclables in the proper Camp Mokule'ia bins.

Loading and Unloading

NO vehicles will be allowed in the camping area. Unloading will be allowed from the parking lot and hopefully through a gate at the far end of the grounds. Look for signs Remember carts and handtrucks for transportation. PLAN ACCORDINGLY

Campsite Firing

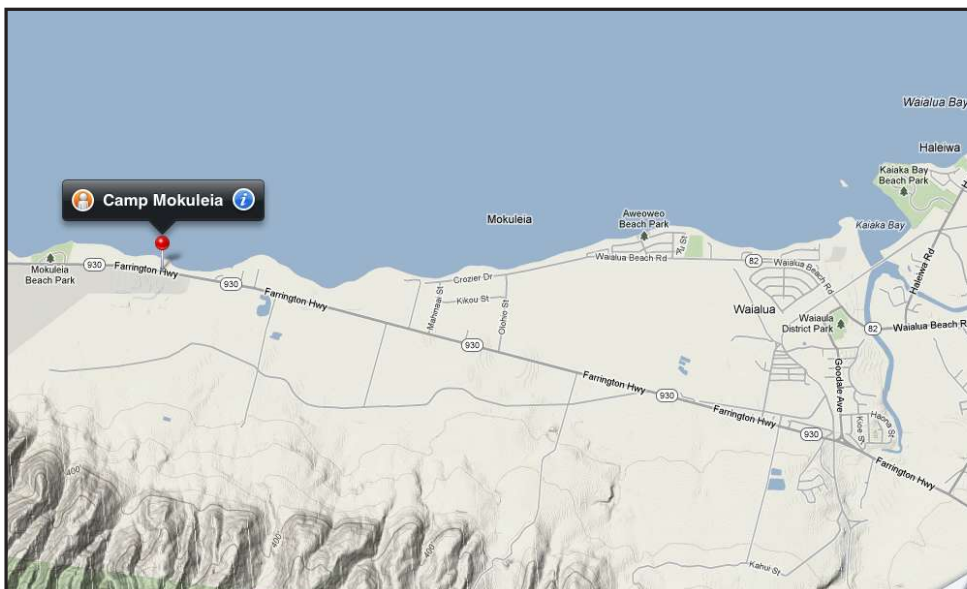

Each group will be assigned a firing area. Kilns and pit fire containers must be elevated above the surface to minimize scorching the ground. Reduction barrels/cans must be elevated or placed on kiln shelving/bricks. All reduction material must be disposed of in the dumpster. This is our first time in this location, (a private facility) and we must take care to leave it clean!

Other items to bring include:

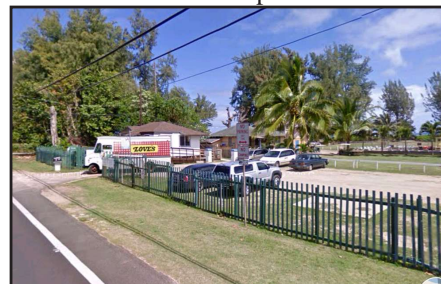

- Kiln and accessories, reduction materials, cans, tongs, gloves, protective clothing and covered shoes.
- Rope and three six-foot poles to secure tanks (DO NOT bury gas tanks). Enough rope to cordon off kiln/firing area
- Raku glazes, tool kit, shovel, plastic garbage bags and first-aid kit.
- Each group should bring a Group Name banner, or sign
- All groups firing more than one kiln at a time are required to bring a "Y" connector.

Refundable Security Deposit/Clean Up

A $75 refundable deposit is required from each group to insure adequate beach and Campsite clean up and participation in the community kiln setup, firing and breakdown.
